ABOUT THE DEAKIN LAW REVIEW

SUBMISSIONS

The Deakin Law Review is a leading Australian refereed law journal, published twice annually. Contributions of articles, case notes and book reviews for publication are welcome at any time. Contributions should be submitted electronically via the Law Review's on-line submission procedure at: <http://www.deakin.edu.au /buslaw/law/dlr/contribute.php>.

All submitted articles, case notes and book reviews are reviewed by at least one independent referee and the editorial committee. The Deakin Law Review ensures that each referee engaged is a recognised expert in the area(s) of law covered in the article.

STYLE GUIDE

The Deakin Law Review adheres to the second edition of the Australian Guide to Legal Citation (Melbourne University Law Review Association Inc, Melbourne) and submissions must conform to this Guide.

A Quick Reference Guide can be downloaded by visiting the 'contributions' section of the Deakin Law Review website at <<http://www.deakin.edu.au/buslaw/law/dlr/contribute.php>>, and then clicking on 'Our Citation Requirements Sheet'.

Note

The Deakin Law Review notes that parts of the text on pages 22, 23, 53 and 55 of the article by Dr Alex Low, 'To Counterfeit in China is Divine: Or is it?' (2002) 7 Deakin Law Review 21 draw heavily on the text appearing on pages 22, 26, 28 and 29 of an article by Douglas Clark, 'IP Rights Protection Will Improve in China', (May-June 2000) The China Business Review 22. This should now be acknowledged.
